Bobby Brown

Bobby Brown was born in Lebanon Missouri. He has played music most of his life, starting with bluegrass as a teenager traveling around the country. Bobby got his first country gig with Monte Davidson and the Wild Bunch. They played at The Lodge of the Four Seasons in Lake of the Ozarks, Billy Bobs in Texas, and Las Vegas.

From there, Bobby moved on to play at Lee Mace’s Ozark Opry and Main Street Opry at Lake of the Ozarks, Moe Bandy and The Brumley Show in Branson and then returned to his home town to play at The Ozark Hills Theater for several more years.

Throughout his career, Bobby has also played in shows with Joe Stampley, Ron and Leona Williams, T. Graham Brown, Johnny Lee and several others.

Currently, you can catch Bobby playing with The Ables Band from Bolivar Missouri. In his spare time, Bobby enjoys working in sales at Morgan Music in Lebanon Missouri.
